Purpose of Activity/Assignment:

Background

CARICOM Heads of Government in 2006 mandated the establishment of a Commission on Youth Development to “undertake a full-scale analysis of the challenges and opportunities for youth in the CARICOM Single Market and Economy (CSME) and to make recommendations to improve their well-being and empowerment”. The Commission, which was established in March 2007, conducted research leading to the Report, entitled “Eye on the Future: Investing in Youth Now for Tomorrow’s Community”.

Consequently, the Heads of Government at a special Summit on Youth Development held in Suriname in January 2010, issued the Declaration of Paramaribo on the Future of Youth in the Caribbean Community, where they endorsed the recommendations made in the Report of the CARICOM Commission on Youth Development. Accordingly, the Declaration of Paramaribo affirmed the “belief that the unique perspective, creativity, energy and other assets which young people possess are essential elements of societal change, technological innovation, and development, making them invaluable assets and partners in development and not problems to be solved”. To operationalize the main recommendations of the Commission’s Report and the Declaration of Paramaribo, the Secretariat established a Technical Working Group and coordinated a regional consultative process to develop the CARICOM Youth Development Action Plan (CYDAP). The CYDAP was endorsed by COHSOD XXIII on Children and Youth, held in July 2012 in Guyana. The CYDAP supports Youth Development in the Region through six CARICOM Youth Development Goal areas focusing on Education and Economic Empowerment; Protection, Safety, and Security; Health and Wellbeing; Culture, Identity, and Citizenship; Policy and Institutional Framework; Leadership; Participation and Governance.

Whilst these goal areas remain applicable, a preliminary review of the CYDAP implementation and accompanying Monitoring and Evaluation Plan reveals the need to use a Results-based Management approach for better outcomes and assessment of the impact of the Action Plan. A review of the priority areas of the CYDAP also reveals the need to expand the goal areas to incorporate environmental protection and preservation, innovation & technology, and a greater emphasis on skills for employability as these are major priority areas of youth development.

Although it is salient to expand the goal areas, the implementation and monitoring of the CYDAP were also impacted by the limited human capacity and personnel, and financial resources experienced at the Member State level within the Ministries of Youth Development and Affairs.

A preliminary review of the CYDAP implementation and accompanying Monitoring and Evaluation Plan reveals the relevance of the present Youth Development Goals but a significant need to expand the focus of the priority areas and goals to incorporate current youth issues. The initial review of the priority areas of the CYDAP revealed the exclusion of other major areas such as environmental protection and preservation, innovation and technology, and a greater emphasis on skills for employability. The review also revealed that the implementation and monitoring of the CYDAP at the national level was not supported due mainly to the limited human capacity and financial resources at the Member State level within the Ministries of Youth Development and Affairs.

The preliminary review also noted the need to use a Results-based Management approach for greater outcomes and assessment of the impact of the Action Plan.

Purpose

The purpose of this consultancy is to create a results-based Management Architecture for the implementation and monitoring of the CARICOM Youth Development Action Plan and to create buy-in and build the capacity of key stakeholders who will be implementing and monitoring the CYDAP nationally.

Given the foregoing context, the changes within the youth development sector require strengthening the regional coordination and mechanisms to support the Member and associate states in implementing the CYDAP. This will create an enabling environment for youth to thrive and develop and to be given a chance to be part of the decision-making process.

Objectives

The changes within the youth development sector require strengthening the regional coordination and mechanisms to support the Member and associate states in implementing the CYDAP. This will create an enabling environment for youth to thrive and develop and to be given a chance to be part of the decision-making process. Therefore, the primary objective of the project is to establish a Results-based Management architecture for planning, implementing, monitoring, and reporting on the CYDAP Priority Areas and Outcomes. This consultancy will focus on achieving the following specific objectives:

- To determine the level of competencies, readiness, and willingness to implement CYDAP
- To develop change management strategies for buy-in of the CYDAP at the sector level in each Member State.
- To advance the implementation of the CYDAP
- To build capacity in the Member States to implement and monitor the CYDAP.

Key and intended users

The primary user of the revised CYDAP and its results-based Management Architecture are the CARICOM Secretariat, Youth Departments/Ministries in Member and Associate States, Civil society Organisation (CSO) service providers, and other duty bearers and rights holders (particularly children and youth) UNICEF, and other key development partners.
