BACKGROUND

Malawi's new Country Programme (2024-2028) includes three components: (1) child survival and development; (2) learning, skills development and protection; and (3) social policy. All components are supported by the programme and operational effectiveness and efficiency imperatives. All UNICEF programmes focus on risk-informed programming across the humanitarian and development nexus in all the above three outcome areas. Risk-informed programming across the humanitarian and development nexus in all three outcome areas will contribute to strengthened disaster preparedness, enhanced climate adaptation/mitigation and response, and increased resilience capacity of institutions, communities, and young people. Programming aligns with UNICEF Core Commitments for Children in Humanitarian Action and the Inter-Agency Standing Committee's Transformative Agenda.

Malawi is ranked fifth in the 2021 Global Climate Risk Index¹. According to the Children's Climate Risk Index (UNICEF, 2021), Malawi is among the top forty countries with high climate risk for children and the most vulnerable communities. Malawi is highly susceptible to climate and environmental shocks, including flooding, drought, cyclones, and extreme heat. Such shocks have recently increased in frequency and magnitude and are among Malawi's children's greatest threats. As per UNICEF, 'Climate Landscape Analysis for Children in Malawi' report (CLAP) 2022 that climate-related hazards have resulted in the loss of life, displaced thousands of people, and damaged or disrupted roads, health facilities, schools, and power supplies across the country. Malawi also faces frequent outbreaks of cholera, endemic malaria, and the re-emergence of vaccine-preventable diseases such as polio, contributing to a need for a programme response fully responsive to an increased poly-crisis environment.

JUSTIFICATION

Malawi has a history of both public health and climate change-related emergencies. Climate-related, encompassing droughts, floods (often caused by cyclones or tropical storms and heavy rains), food insecurity, and infectious disease outbreaks. Cholera, Polio, Measles, Malaria, COVID-19, Schistosomiasis, and other infectious diseases create public health emergencies with devastating consequences in Malawi; there are also emerging Scabies outbreaks reported from schools in some districts. A cholera outbreak was reported in March 2022, which has been ongoing to date, with cases reported across all districts. On 13 March 2023, Tropical Cyclone Freddy affected at least 2.5 million people¹ (including 51 per cent female and 56 per cent children), left 659,278 displaced, injured 2,186 people, and killed 679. The 659,278 displaced were housed in 776 camps.

With protracted poly-crisis specially Cholera, Malawi Government and relevant agencies continued to respond to the situation. As humanitarian partner, UNICEF continuously supports the Government of Malawi in responding to multiple emergencies in a coordinated and effective manner to reach more children and families affected by humanitarian crises. At the heart of UNICEF's response is the Core Commitments for Children in Humanitarian Action (CCCs). The CCCs call for the rapid provision and deployment of qualified personnel to act in the first eight critical weeks of humanitarian response and provide guidance for action beyond that, moving towards defined benchmarks. Therefore, UNICEF is seeking dedicated individuals willing to work on emergency response and preparedness, risk-informed and resilience programming, and operations and programme activities in various fields to ensure the survival and well-being of children, women, and affected communities in an emergency.

PURPOSE OF THE ASSIGNMENT

The purpose of the assignment is to support the functioning of the Protection Cluster in ensuring smooth coordination, information sharing and data collection amongst humanitarian stakeholders, including Cluster members and other humanitarian actors such as Government officials at the national and sub-national levels, development partners, and local communities. Additionally, the Protection Cluster Information Management Officer will support the Ministry of Gender, Community Development and Social Welfare in facilitating Information Management related processes that will ensure a well-coordinated, strategic, adequate, coherent, and effective response by the cluster.

Under the overall guidance and direction of the Chief of Child Protection, the Protection Cluster Information Management Officer is expected to provide technical Information Management related support throughout all stages of emergency Protection programming to facilitate the management and delivery of results through key global, regional and country partnerships and so successfully manage and coordinate the various emergency response efforts and contributing to the below objectives:

SCOPE OF WORK/OBJECTIVES

The Protection Cluster Information Management Officer is expected to provide technical support in partnership with counterparts and partners with a specific focus on the following elements:

1. Respond to the Cluster/Sub-Cluster/TWG members information needs. Work with Cluster members to identify information gaps at national and sub-national levels and propose ways to bridge those gaps
2. Adapt existing in-country Information Management approaches for collecting, analysing and reporting Cluster activities and resources, and identify information gaps.
3. Establish and maintain information databases that consolidate information critical to decision making, including related summary analysis and presentation/reporting of findings.
4. Support in conducting the mapping of all current and potential actors (Government, national and international humanitarian organisations as well as national institutions, and the private sector) through the provision of regular inputs/updates on the Clusters 5W's (Who, What, Where, When and for Whom) matrix, Cluster priority response matrix and other tools. Support the identification of spatial and temporal gaps, overlaps and coverage of Cluster activities and projects.
5. Work with the OCHA Information Management Specialist/Officer to develop appropriate supportive strategies.
6. Use mapping (Geographic Information Systems) software to produce spatial data management products
7. Adopt and promote the use of global Information Management standards for interoperability.
8. Manage information flows and dissemination approaches in an appropriate way, including website management.
9. Manage an inventory of relevant documents on the humanitarian situation.

10. Support the development and analysis of needs assessment and programme monitoring tools.
11. Provide Information Management leadership in assessments and monitoring exercises, including joint assessments, and training.
12. Obtain inputs for situation reports, with emphasis on Cluster plans, targets, and achievements.
13. Develop and strengthen Information Management capacity amongst Cluster members through training.
14. Contribute to the Cluster Core Functions (IASC).
15. Where we have both national and sub-national clusters in place, ensure there is effective communication, reporting, engagement and coordination between the two levels.
16. Assist in developing mechanisms to eliminate duplication of service delivery based on existing data and proactively strive for effective methods of acquiring data from the relevant stakeholders to fill the information gap.
17. Prepare Cluster meeting minutes and circulate the Cluster meeting outputs, presentations and minutes
18. Regularly update and maintain a contact list of all Cluster partners and working groups.
19. Support the Cluster in developing a monitoring and evaluation framework for the Cluster response plan and support the development of indicators which the Cluster needs to monitor, linked to the response plan.
20. Collate, curate, and analyse relevant information and maintain and update the emergency dashboard to facilitate humanitarian information exchange and promote data and information standards.
21. Undertake regular monitoring visits to review the responses and provide oversight for quality control for partners reporting.
22. In collaboration with the Cluster Coordinator, rectify any gaps identified in reporting against the Cluster indicators on service delivery (quantity, quality, coverage, continuity and cost) by regularly communicating and discussing the gaps with Cluster members and providing technical support aimed at enhancing timely and quality reporting.
23. Work with Cluster members on reporting disability, sex and age disaggregated data, that should inform Cluster analysis.
24. Support the Cluster coordination team and Cluster members in setting up and maintaining a Cluster complaint and feedback mechanism based on the inputs/guidance provided. Report regularly to the Cluster members.
25. Support the Cluster coordination team and Cluster members in preparedness and contingency planning: consolidation of inputs by members for the Emergency Preparedness and Response, maintenance/update of databases to ensure quick access to data for analysis, and other IM tools, etc.
