JOB ORGANIZATIONAL CONTEXT AND PURPOSE FOR THE JOB

Mexico is a country of origin, transit and destination for migrant children from the countries of northern Central America, seeking safety and opportunity in Mexico or the United States. These are children fleeing from gang-related and gender-based violence, organized crime, extortion, poverty and limited access to education and social services. They have been repeatedly exposed to threats, intimidation and insecurity in a lawless environment. Many also want to be reunited with their families who reside in the United States.

UNICEF is supporting state and local authorities for the rapid identification, registration and care of unaccompanied and separated children and adolescents who have entered the country or are moving through Mexico at both the northern and southern borders. Mexico Office supports the country deal with the migration crisis and implement actions to improve the lives of the children in Mexico in the areas of education, nutrition, social policy, child protection besides other transversal activities. The office is rapidly growing, and we are in the process of building the structure that we need to increase our reach in the country and improve the services we deliver.

As the focal point of administrative management services in the Mexico country office, the Administrative Officer is accountable for delivery of efficient and cost-effective administrative support services, providing guidance for operations of administrative support services and management of administrative staff in UNICEF Mexico central office and field offices across the country. Ensures the office's administrative operations and services are in compliance with the organization's administrative policy, procedures, rules, and regulations.
