

Work Assignments Overview	Deliverables/Outputs	Delivery deadline
Determine the micronutrients gap by obtaining up-to-date micronutrients deficiency data and assessing the target population's dietary intake and the contribution of existing micronutrient interventions to establish the need to improve population nutrients intake for specific vitamins and minerals.	A comprehensive Chinese and English report (around 30 pages exclusive of references and annex) with Executive Summary and PPT	By 20 June
Map the sufficiency of existing micronutrients improvement strategies and policies to address the identified micro-nutrients need.		By 20 July
Demonstrate the advantage and disadvantage of each intervention (improve food diversity, food fortification and supplement) in Chinese context.		By 20 August
Develop strategy on prevention of micronutrients deficiency among children and women of reproductive age with clear road map, especially on development of national food standards.		By 20 September
English and Chinese Report finalizing with PPTs.		By 30 September