II. Organizational Context and Purpose for the job

UNICEF is a leading humanitarian and development agency working globally for the rights of every child. Child rights begin with safe shelter, nutrition, protection from disaster and conflict and traverse the life cycle: pre-natal care for healthy births, clean water and sanitation, health care and education. UNICEF has spent nearly 70 years working to improve the lives of children and their families. Working with and for children through adolescence and into adulthood requires a global presence whose goal is to produce results and monitor their effects. UNICEF also lobbies and partners with leaders, thinkers and policy makers to help all children realize their rights—especially the most disadvantaged.

Job organizational context:

The People and Culture Officer (NO-1) will be a part of the People & Culture team of the Mexico Country Officer, under the leadership of the People & Culture Specialist (P-3). He/She will supervise the People and Culture Assistants (GS-5 and UNV) and will work on a broad range of functions, mainly: Diversity, Equity and Inclusion; Learning & Development; Talent Acquisition and Outreach; Staff Wellbeing.

Purpose for the job

The People & Culture Officer reports to the People and Culture Specialist for close guidance, training and supervision. The Officer provides support to the supervisor and colleagues in the unit by executing HR services through applying knowledge of theoretical HR models, as well as understanding of organizational HR policies and procedures.
