Title: National Consultant for the Mid-Term Review of the UN Joint RMNCH Programme phase 3 (2022-2025)	Funding Code: WBS: 2460/A0/06/100/002	Duty Station: Vientiane, Lao PDR
Purpose of Activity/Assignment: The main objectives of the MTR are to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • assess programme design, objectives, implementation strategy, and governance and management arrangements in light of changes in context. • take stock of progress, challenges and opportunities. • verify the continued relevance of the programme and the sustainability of its results. • make recommendations on how to improve programme performance, identify areas which require specific attention to achieve expected results and identify strategic elements of joint programme support beyond 2025.
Scope of Work: The MTR will cover the following areas: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. analysis of the context and environment for programme implementation. 2. programme design and results framework. 3. programme governance, management and coordination. 4. implementation of programme activities (quantity, quality and utility). 5. progress towards achievement of programme results (outputs, outcomes). The MTR will be based on the following assessment criteria: Strategic Relevance & Added Value, Effectiveness, Organization & Efficiency, and Sustainability. Review questions, developed on the basis of these criteria, will guide the review process. Programme context The current RMNCH Strategy and Action Plan was developed in 2015 and launched in 2016. The Strategy covers 10 years (2016-2025) and includes a 5-year Action Plan (2021-2025). The Mid Term Review of the RMNCH Strategy and Action Plan will be carried out in 2024 and feeds into the development of the RMNCH Strategy and Action Plan 2026-2030. The MTR of the UNJP will be carried out in alignment with the MTR of the national RMNCH Strategy and Action Plan. The UNJP MTR shall elicit the risks and opportunities for successful implementation of the UNJP as it supports the implementation of this national strategic framework. The UNJP MTR will consider the findings of the recent MTR of the 5th Indicative Cooperation Programme between Lao PDR and Luxembourg (2022-2026). Also, the UNJP MTR will examine linkages with the UNPF and Delivering as One strategy in Lao PDR and opportunities for improved synergies with joint UN planning and reporting processes taking place within the context of UNPF structures. Programme design The MTR will assess the logic of the various components of the UNJP results framework; the coherence and cohesion of the various activities under the respective outputs; the statement/language of outputs, outcomes and the related indicators and targets; the validity of the assumptions/risks and premises that formed the basis for the design and implementation of the programme to determine their appropriateness and continued relevance.

Programme governance, management and coordination

The MTR will assess the governance and management arrangements of the UNJP, its functions and performance in order to determine its adequacy and effectiveness. The MTR will look at the leadership for strategic direction, the extent to which activities and resources are effectively coordinated, the extent to which timely and appropriate decisions are being made to support effective implementation, monitoring and reporting mechanisms to determine their relevance and compatibility with provisions, objectives and activities as designed. Specifically, the MTR will assess the readiness of national RMNCH coordination structures to absorb UNJP governance arrangements with the aim of further reducing the administrative burden on national counterparts. The UNJP MTR will also review the coordination with other Luxembourg-funded projects/programmes and identify further entry points for synergies.

Programme implementation

The implementation of programme activities will be reviewed to take stock of the quantity and quality of progress made towards achievement of results, compare them with planned activities and ascertain the likelihood of the programme achieving its objectives/results. The MTR will examine the UNJP’s instruments for activity planning and monitoring. These will include but will not be limited to annual work plans and budgets, annual progress and financial reports, and will also assess information management and reporting and the extent to which key stakeholders are adequately informed of programme activities. The MTR will examine the adequacy of inputs for the delivery of programme outputs and the timelines of the delivery of such inputs. The inputs will include financial support, technical assistance, and other material inputs for capacity development. With regard to financing, the MTR will compare the budget with actual disbursements, timeliness of disbursement of funds, and implementing partners’ capacity to ensure timely delivery of results.

Programme results: outputs, outcomes and sustainability

The MTR will assess the programme’s overall outputs and will assess quantity and quality of the outputs produced with what was planned. The review will also assess progress made towards achievement of outputs in comparison to the milestones as defined in the programme results framework. Based on these assessments, specific constraints and opportunities will be identified and specific recommendations will be made on how to improve programme performance and sustainability.
